

#8

This presentation will highlight the history of black carp in the United States and recent captures that have occurred. Management recommendations in the national plan for black carp and other considerations with regard to black carp will be described.