

#16

The ANSTF voluntary recreational guidelines were approved in 2000. Since that time several new threats have emerged relative to these guidelines. During their fall meeting, the ANSTF agreed that the guidelines should be updated. In order to do this, the ANSTF supported the establishment of the recreational guidelines ad hoc committee. An update of committee development will be provided.