

U.S. Government Accountability Office Audit

The U.S. Government Accountability Office is conducting a review of overlap and duplication of Federal invasive species efforts. Overall coordination and identification of gaps in Federal efforts will also be evaluated. An update of this review will be provided.

